

Weedy Wednesday Webinar Series

Wednesdays in February and March, 1:00-2:00 p.m. (MST)

Sponsored by Montana State University Extension and Montana Weed Control Association

- February 3 Recognizing Herbicide Symptoms
Noelle Orloff, Montana State University
- February 10 Herbicide Resistance: Best Management Practices in Crop and Non-Crop Areas
Dr. Albert Adjesiwor, University of Idaho
- February 17 Waterhemp and Palmer Amaranth: Biology, Prevention and Potential for Spread in Montana
Drs. Tim Seipel and Lovreet Shergill, Montana State University
- February 24 Complying with the Noxious Weed Control Act
Jasmine Reimer, Montana Dept. Agriculture; Amber Burch, Beaverhead Co. Weed District
- March 3 Cropping Systems as a Tool for Weed Management
Dr. Kent McVay, Montana State University
- March 10 No webinar
- March 17 Revegetation as Part of Weed Management: Tips for Success
Monica Pokorny, USDA-NRCS
- March 24 Predicted Risk Models for Invasive Plants in Montana
Bryce Maxell, Montana Natural Heritage Program
- March 31 Crafting a Tank Mix: How to Ensure Efficient Control of Invasive Plants
Mat Walter, Montana State University Extension, Lewis and Clark County

More information and registration at MSU Extension Invasive Plants Events

One (1) pesticide applicator credit is available for each webinar (Montana only). See website for details as categories vary depending on the webinar.